This family was featured on 11 News. This single mom always donates her children's clothing and baby items back to HOPE of the Grand Valley!!!! As a matter of fact, she will be bringing her children's clothing that they have out grown along with a high chair to HOPE of the Grand Valley this coming Tuesday!

A STORY OF HOPE

I am a single mom recently divorced. I have three children starting school this year and I just don't have the money to buy them school clothes. I am in the middle of a divorce, I am working on my GED and moving forward with my life. I have been diagnosed with skin cancer, but I have been waiting for months for my insurance to get approved. If you can help me I really appreciate this.

My mother passed away when I was 12; my step dad sent me to Colorado Springs for a guy to take care of me, my boyfriend at the time. I just met my dad a year ago, and he does not have anything to do with us.

I met my husband in Oklahoma when we were in Elementary School before my mom died and I moved to Colorado Springs.

We reconnected just a few months ago, and I moved to Grand Junction; we got married in March 19, 2011 in Grand Junction. I moved to Grand Junction because he was here. He is now in jail now for being the getaway driver for the bank robberies in Cedar Ridge and Montrose. He was put in jail July 29, 2011.

I have a brain tumor and I am treated monthly at University Hospital in Denver, with a shut in my head to drain the fluid, I am on disability. I have had this shunt for two and a half years and the tumor for about five years.

I have two children, Christian, age 10 and Haley 5. My children will be going to Rocky Mountain elementary school clothing. Most Immediate need is shoes.

Thank you generous donors, because of You we are still going!!! God Bless You!!!!
